

Congratulations to the almost 150,000 lawyers and judges who are or have been pupils, barristers, and masters over the past 35 years. Each of you has played a vital role in the American Inns of Court's passionate and tireless efforts to elevate the practice of American law to its highest level, emphasizing legal excellence, professionalism, ethics, and civility.

The journey to the 35th milestone has been amazing. If we all imagine the full potential of our movement and stay committed to the cause, the next 35th milestone will be historic.

Here's to history.
